Welcome to Ambassadors Clubhouse

Created by JKS Restaurants, the group behind London's Gymkhana, the UK's first Punjabi Michelin-starred restaurant. An ode to our founders' grandfather and his residence in Northern India, the restaurant draws inspiration from the region's party mansions and celebrates classic Punjabi hospitality.

The Food

Our menus celebrate the rich culinary heritage of undivided Punjab—spanning both India and Pakistan. Inspired by the vibrant flavours found in roadside stalls, family kitchens, and royal palaces, each dish reflects this shared food legacy. Rare recipes and traditional cooking techniques are thoughtfully preserved throughout, allowing the region's cuisine to shine in its purest and most authentic form.

Festive Feast
A generous four-course menu, featuring bitings, regional curries and traditional desserts.

Exclusive and Semi-Exclusive Hire

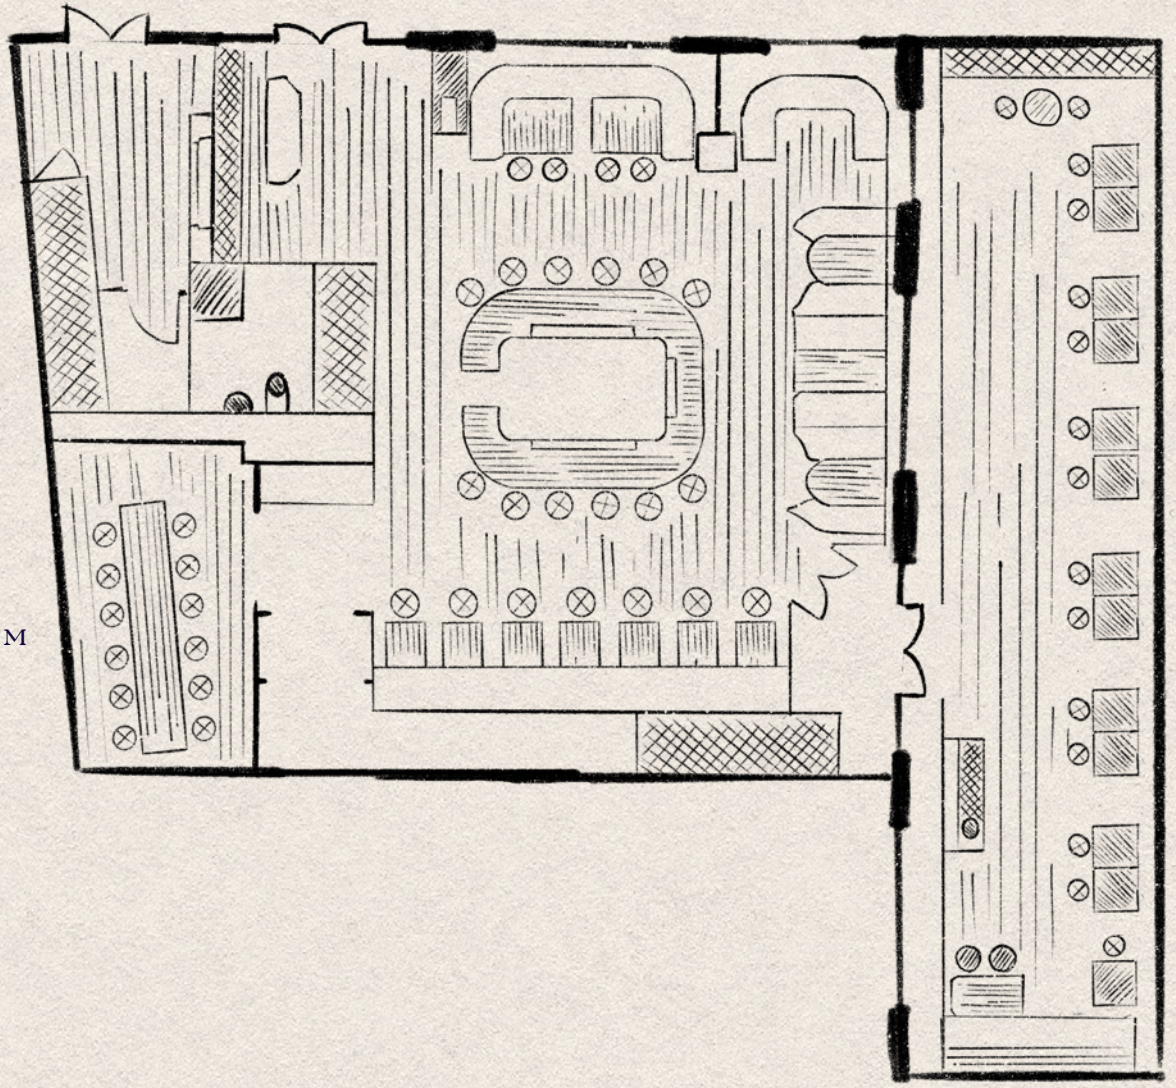

The Ground Floor

A space designed for both spirited gatherings and elegant meals. A gold-domed ceiling, etched with the restaurant's crest, is the focal point of the room, while a marquetry bar and tiled finishes add subtle texture and charm. Banquettes and booth seating evoke the feel of a refined tavern, inviting long lunches, celebratory dinners or drinks that stretch into the evening.
